ORAL JUDGMENT

By way of this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the only main relief which is sought in the present Special Civil Application is to direct the respondents to supply to the petitioner, a copy of the Rules governing promotion to the post of Head Male Attendant, on the basis of which petitioner is denied promotion.

Shri Maulik Nanavati, learned AGP has submitted that if there are any Rules governing promotion to the post of Head Male Attendant, on approaching respondent No.3, the petitioner will be supplied the copy of the Rules governing promotion to the post of Head Male Attendant (if there are any) immediately and/or within a week from the date on which the petitioner approaches respondent No.3.

In view of the same, no further order is required to be passed as the prayer in para 10(A) which is the only main prayer, is satisfied.

With this, the present petition is disposed of. No costs. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. No costs.
